CRIME WRITERS OF CANADA ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD CHAIR

Crime Writers of Canada (CWC) is pleased to announce that Ottawa mystery writer Mike Martin has been elected as the new Chair of the organization by the CWC Board of Directors.

Mike Martin is the author of the Sgt. Windflower Mysteries, set in Newfoundland and Labrador, and is a long-time member of CWC and its former Vice-Chair. A native of St. John's, Newfoundland, he brings many years of experience and expertise in communications and not-for profit organizations to his new position.

“It is a great honour to lead CWC into the next phase of our history,” said Martin. “Crime and mystery writing has never been more popular in Canada and around the world. CWC will continue to showcase our established writers and introduce a crop of up and coming new writers who are poised to take their place on the Canadian and international stage.”
